1 those rights. But there's not a huge difference between
2 the two.

3 THE CLERK: Mr. Anderson, and this is the Clerk
4 again, um, if you could not talk over the judge and, um,
5 again identify yourself when you speak, because I think
6 the Court Reporter might be having a little trouble.

7 MR. ANDERSON: Yes, I apologize. That was David
8 Anderson speaking.

9 THE COURT: All right, here's my ruling.

10 The depositions shall be done -- the depositions
11 shall be done remotely by zoom. If a particular lawyer
12 wishes to be present live at the depositions with his 13 client, he may be.

14 The 30(b)(6) and individual depositions shall be
15 done on consecutive days back to back with the total
16 time not to exceed 14 hours to be split evenly between 17 the parties.

18 The documents shall be produced three days before.

19 MR. ANDERSON: This is David Anderson speaking,
20 your Honor.

21 Business days or calendar days?

22 THE COURT: 3 business days.

23 MS. LATTI: Your Honor, for clarification -- and 24 this is Carolyn Latti.
